The steam yachts Viola, Chyra and Mystic and others ere also at anchor off the point, with guests on board. In the evening there were dancing and threworks on shore and an illumination of the fleet. Altogether, the season opened most favorably for a "summer of roses and wine," and good yachting with the American Yacht

Half a hundred yachts, of all sizes, colors, and classes, lay at anchor in Gravesend Bay with mainsloop Mull, the flagship of the Brooklyn Yacht Club squadron, gave the starting signal for the opening regatta. Before the reverberations had rolled shoreward, jibs and ensigns ran up, anchors were weighed nd one of the finest flects ever mustered by the club started on a thrash to windward; sloops, schooners and cathoats bowled along side by side, bright not with bunting but also with the gay yachting ostumes worn by the hosts of "sisters, cousins and honored the sailors by being present in er numbers than ever before.

shortly after starting, the haze which had hidden drifted off, the wind piped strong and free, and 9 was soon reached. Here yacht after yacht came about and passed to windward of the flagship. No was taken either at start or finish. Among the many yachts which passed in review were the yawl the Bess; Decoy, Irene, Iroquois, Mamie, Sladys, Missle, Seminole, White Wings, Carrie, Ger-Geimalkin Hominy Panchito, Siren, Luna, Josephine, Alga, Roma, Busto and many others, not to omit the house-boat Studio, which stood up to the wind like a church and looks like a French flat, with her jolly captain and owner, M. F. Tobin, who has to stand on the cabin to steer her. On board the flagship Mull were the owner, Benjamin F. Sutton, cessfully conspired to give the best kind of a good time to their numerous guests, among them being the Misses Turner, Miss Bloomfield, Miss Lulu Franklin, Mrs. Valentine, Mrs. Lyons, Fleet Captain Edward Salt,

J. McAuley, F. Lent, Charles Fuller and J. C. O'Neil. After rounding the buoy the fleet sailed up the Bay for a short distance, returning to the club anchor-Bay for a snort distance, returning to the cinb auchor-age at 2:30 p. m., and the club-house was soon filled by a big party, to whom the sea air had given the usual appetite. After dinner, the afternoon was taken up by an entertainment, managed by Captain E. C. M. Fitzgerald, which was followed by a concert, and long after the sun had sunk the dark waters still reflected the lights from the club-house, where the merry, merry maiden and the tar danced away the hours.

Among others present were Captain Ogden, in whose launch Wave Crest the Commodore reviewed the fleet before sailing; C. E. Simmons, vice-commodore; George Lyons, rear-commodore; and the following captains, who sail their own boats: H. S. Wood, A. M. Lockhead, E. H. Chandler, W. T. Murphy, Mr. Cagger, A. Wheelwright, H. Place, J. Prentiss, James Brown, J. B. Tribken, C. Oliver, G. Behnard, E. F. Drayton, George Foote, F. W. Whitehouse, Henry Clark, O. E.

The Staten Island Yacht Club, of Stapleton, which was organized about two months ago and has eighteen boats on its roll, took its first sail yesterday, starting from Stapleton at 9:42 a. m., racing to Sea waren, N. J., a distance of sixteen and a half miles, and returning at pleasure in the afternoon. John A. Duff, a member of the club, offered a silver pitcher as a prize in the run to Seawaren. It was won, on time allowance, by William H. Ludlum's yacht Amy The other boats were Henrietta, Hector, Sterling, and

The other boats were Henrictta, Hector, Sterling, and Iris.

The Kill von Kull Yacht Club held a successful open regatta yesterday afternoon off their club-house. Port Richmond. Staten Island. There were twenty-four entries of open jib-and-mainsail and cat boats. Yachts started from an imaginary line drawn from a stake-hoat off the club-house to the shore, ran to a second stake-boat off Shooter's Island, thence around a buoy off the drawbridge of the New-Jersey Central Railroad and back on the same course to the inish line. The boats in Class F passed twice over the course, and those of all other classes three times.

The winners were as follows: In class C, Viola B., owned by H. Naegle; Class D. Just Woke Up, J. D. Phillips; Class F, Ceyx. F. Fisher; Class E, Bessie D., L. H. Detle; Class H, Joher, H. Jones; Class J, Hope, J. C. Smith.

The most interesting race was in Class I, open cathoats from twenty to eighteen feet, in which there were six entries. The Shore House, owned by S. Barnes, finished first, but was disqualified for a violation of the sailing rules, and the race was given to E. Post's Bon Ton. William Houghwont's Torment won second prize. The prize for the quickest actual time over the course was given to Viola B, which ran over the fifteen miles in 1 hour. 50 minutes, 35 seconds.

The regatta committee were L. W. Pultz, C. Ingalls, Ir., F. B. Huyler, E. H. Buell and G. D. Swartwout. The judges were George Treadwell, Frank Foggin, L. W. Pultz and E. H. Buell. The club has decided to hold its annual open regatta on July 4.

FINE SPORT AT BAYONNE CITY. The New-Jersey Athletic Club's games at the club's grounds, Bayonne City, drew a large crowd of people yesterday afternoon. Special trains were run on the New-Jersey Central between Jersey City and the grounds, so that the facilities for getting back and forth were excellent. The club has a beautiful place, and the pleasant weather yesterday made it doubly attractive. In the 220-yard novice run, H. Miller was first, C. Pressler second. The winner's time was 25 seconds. In the 100-yard handicap, T. Richardson won, with A. Willershausen second. Time-10.2 seconds. In the handicap hurdle race of 220 yards

After the field events came a game of ball between the nine of the New-Jersey Athletic Club and a nine from the New-York Athletic Club. The New-Jersey men won by a score of 4 to 1.

NEW-JERSEY WHEELMEN ON PARADE. Rain spoiled the programme for the annual meet of the New-Jersey Division League of American Wheelen yesterday at Elizabeth, and the greater portion of it was omitted. The condition of the country roads was such that there could not be any runs over them and the meet simply resolved itself into a short parade of the wheelmen through the city and a dinner after ward at the Veteran Zouaves' armory.

The parade was participated in by 175 wheeling representing the following clubs: Orange Wheelmen, Asbury Park Wheelmen, Westfield Bicycle Club, Century Bicycle Club, Mercer County Wheelmen, Atalanta Wheelmen, Newark; Freehold Cyclers, Roselle Rambiers, Union County Roadsters, Plainfield Bicycle Club, Trenton Lady Cyclists, Red Bank Bicycle Club, Flemington Bieycle Club, Hightstown Wheelmen, Bound Brook Bicycle Club, Washington, N. J., Wheelmen, Owl Bicycle Club, Bordentown; Dover Owl Bicycle Club, Bordentown, Dover whether Bergen County Bicycle Club, New-Brunswick Bicycle Club, Tourist Cyclers, Paterson: Business Men's Cycling League, Newark, and Elizabeth Wheelmen. At the dinner held afterward at the Zouave armory speeches were made by Mayor Rankin, ex-Governor Green, Senator Marsh and others.

SCOTTISH-AMERICANS ON THEIR MUSCLE The games of the Scottish-American Athletic Club were held at Corinthian Park, Jersey City Heights, vesterday afternoon. Several hundred people saw the The grounds are well laid out and the track was in fine condition. Gold medals were given to the winners as follows:

EASTERN YACHT CLUB HANDICAP RACE Boston, May 30 (Special).—The handicap races of the Eastern Yacht Club were sailed off Marblehead to-day. Only three thirty-footers put in an appearance, and none of the new forty-six-footers started. The wind was light from the southwest, and the course triangular, eight miles to each leg. The Saladin was handlcapped to the Hawk 5 minutes 15 seconds, and to the Elf 20 minutes. The first leg was to windward, and but for a shift of wind, the Saladin would have made up her time on both boats. As it turned out the Saladin was only 42 seconds ahead of the Hawk at the first mark and 18 minutes ahead of the Elf It was a reach to the next mark, and the Saladin beat both boats. The last leg was down the wind, the yachts carrying spinnakers to port. The Saladin again made the best time on this leg, but she failed to heat the Hawk over the course outside of her handicap. The Elf was 30 minutes astern, having been becalmed on the way in. The Hawk won the prize, the Saladin second, the Elf third.

PASTIME MEN TOOK SIX PRIZES. Forty runners took part in the cross-country run yesterday, under the auspices of the Park Athletic Club, at Elizabeth, N. J., Thomas O'Donnell, of the Pastimes, came in first, and Timothy Collins of the same club was second. The Pastime Athletic Club carried off the honors, winning the club prize for the first five men that finished, and also carrying off a majority of the individual prizes. The Pastimes won the first six out of the cleven prizes which were awarded to the runners. The distance covered was five miles.

AN ENGLISH TEAM COMES TO GRIEF The Staten Island Cricket Club played a friendly game yesterday afternoon at their grounds at Living ston, S. I., with the eleven of the steamer Teutonic. As this was practically the first game in which the Englishmen had played together, they made light work for the strong Staten Island team, which won in a single inning, piling up a total of 227 runs against their opponents' 62, made in two innings.

Pittsburg, May 30 (Special).—On a track fetlock deep in mud the circuit horses made their last appearance at Homewood Park this afternoon. Only two contests were carried out; the rest of the programme had to go by default, as those begun occupied the time up to dark. After a drenching shower, Iseminger, Abble V., and Grand Isle were wisely drawn, as they stood no chance for a heat. The next meeting is at Baltimore. Summaries :*

Chicago, May 30.—The feature here to-day in a sporting way was the annual bleycle road race to Pullman, a distance of fifteen and one quarter miles.
